STUDENT STATEMENT

This application confirms my intent to participate in the 2023-2024 Play Slam! Young Playwrights Competition hosted by Playhouse on the Square and the Department of Theatre Education.

I confirm that my submission is an original work (plagiarized materials will be disqualified) and has been written solely by myself.

I have checked that my script meets all formatting, character count, timing requirements, and additional competition rules and guidelines.

I understand that Playhouse on the Square reserves the right to accept or reject any plays submitted to the contest for any reason.

I understand that Playhouse on the Square reserves the right to request changes and revisions from submitted scripts.

I understand that Playhouse on the Square may post the names of the chosen playwrights on marketing and press materials.

By submitting a play, I give Playhouse on the Square permission to produce in full or an excerpt of my play now or in the future and give permission that my script can be made available online for free download for use. This includes its inclusion in any future print/electronic anthologies available for free or for sale to the public.

I understand that Playhouse on the Square reserves the right to record, videotape, and/or photograph any and all of the performance of my work and participation in any events associated with the Play Slam! Young Playwrights Festival, and reproduce and/or distribute all or part of these recordings or photographs.

I understand that if I am chosen as the winner of either the Play Slam! Middle and High School Division that my script will be submitted to the Playwrights for Change (PFC) national competition hosted by AATE. While the Play Slam! Coordinator will work with the winners to complete the application to PFC and other competition requirements, any future requests, steps, and rules will be determined and judged by the PFC committee and AATE staff.
